This upgraded 2-bedroom, 2.5-bath corner unit townhome offers over 1300 sq. ft. of thoughtfully designed space, plus a versatile flex/media room on the main floor—perfect for movie nights, a home office, or your Peloton setup. A corner unit means more windows (3 additional) a bigger second bedroom, and more natural light throughout. You’ll love having no rear neighbours, a quiet street-facing home with spacious balcony, a garage with additional storage, and full-length driveway that actually fits a full-sized vehicle. A very rare find! The upgrades throughout this home make everyday living more comfortable and convenient: central A/C for those hot summer days, durable laminate flooring, modern kitchen appliances, and boiling hot filtered water right at the kitchen sink. You'll also find extra lighting in the bathrooms for a brighter, more functional space. Thoughtful touches like custom shelving in the closets, pantry, garage, and media room help keep everything organized. And with TV outlets in every room—plus extra placement options in the living and dining areas—you’ll have flexibility no matter how you set up your space. Living in Legacy means being part of a vibrant, well-planned community with parks, playgrounds, shops, and scenic walking paths all around you. It’s quiet, connected, and convenient—just minutes from major routes like Macleod and Stoney Trail. Whether you're upsizing from a condo or buying your very first home, this townhome offers comfort, style, and smart living in one of South Calgary’s most desirable communities.
