At just under 1200 square feet, this is an entry -level opportunity at the Riverstone, one of the Mission's most prestigious addresses. From the moment you pull up to the front entrance of this exclusive riverside residence, you will be impressed. The building is meticulously maintained with extensive upgrades throughout. Superbly located along the Elbow River with immediate access to an extensive route of bike and walking paths, as well as the prestigious Glenco Club, there are no disappointments here. For those lazy weekend afternoons, there is a large array of coffee shops, restaurants and bistros all within a comfortable walking distance. The unit itself is on the 5th floor. Its features include 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, with a West-facing view overlooking a lovely green rooftop terrace next door. ( Note it is not as obvious now, as its that in between seasons) Its main living area is large and inviting with loads of decorating potential. Upgrades include newer mocha-colored laminate flooring, wide baseboards, fresh paint, refaced kitchen cabinets with white quartz countertops.... The indoor swimming pool is a gorgeous, bright, open lounging area. Additional features include a hot tub, a sauna, showers, a full gym, a library and a social room for those times when you want to host colleagues, friends or family for special occasions. You also have the convenience of an on-site car wash and Tennis Courts. Also included is one titled parking space, extra, fully enclosed assigned storage and visitor parking.
