This is a prime opportunity to own a rare, 70' x 233' lot with downtown views, favourably located adjacent to an innovative park and across from a lush green space. With a desirable west-facing backyard and abundant southern sunlight, this property offers outstanding potential for a future custom build or redevelopment project. The existing 1,748 sq ft bungalow can be enjoyed as a residence or held as a rental property while plans for your vision take shape. Nearby, you'll discover charming coffee shops, various culinary experiences in Kensington, boutique shops brimming with local flair, quick access to transit, all levels of schools and Calgary's top medical centres. The property and house are being sold in "as is" condition.
