Elevated among the trees and overlooking the 9th tee of Silvertip Golf Course, the setting is nothing short of breathtaking. From the moment you arrive, a deep sense of calm takes hold— an atmosphere cherished by the original owners for over two decades. The main floor of this two-story walkout is anchored by a grand Rundlestone fireplace, with expansive windows that dissolve the boundary between refined interior living and the majestic alpine surroundings. The open-concept kitchen and dining area are designed for effortless entertaining, with uninterrupted views of Canmore's iconic south range and valley below. The walkout lower level includes a third bedroom and a generous unfinished space with potential for a fourth bedroom and media area, with large windows and direct patio access that ensure the space remains bright and inviting. With in-floor heating already roughed in, it's ready for your custom vision. As the premier end-unit in this exclusive enclave, where the comforts of community subtly give way to the
